EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

- 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.
- □ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.
- □ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112: Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Retainer Agreement (Chapter 7)

I (We), Donald Eduard Tustus, the undersigned, hereinafter referred to as "Client", agree to employ Kumor & Hipple, P.C, hereinafter referred to as "Attorney", to render legal services in connection with filing a bankruptcy case on my (our) behalf, and hereby empower and authorize Attorney to handle all actions, in their sole discretion, reasonably necessary to bring the matter to a successful conclusion. Client acknowledges that the following advance payment retainer agreement has been fully explained, and Client agrees to pay said fees and costs in consideration of legal services rendered or to be rendered.

Fees and Costs.

• Fees. Client agrees to pay Attorney a fee of $ /500,00 for attorney legal services set forth herein to prepare a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case.

Client also agrees that in the event that they decide to file a Chapter 13 case, either by choice or because they are ineligible to file a Chapter 7, then, they will be required to sign a Court-Approved Model Retention Agreement which sets forth the agreement between Debtor and Attorney for a Chapter 13 case, including payment of any additional fees that will be paid to attorney for handling a Chapter 13 case. Client also understands that the paid by Client pursuant to this agreement, shall be applied towards the total attorneys fees paid by Client for preparation of their Chapter 13 case, and included in the total amount paid to Attorney in the Court Approved Model Retention Agreement. Client understands that Attorney shall not complete any further work for preparation of a Chapter 13 case, until the Client signs the Court-Approved Model Retention Agreement with Attorney. Client also understands that they are not obligated to sign the Court Approved Retention Agreement, although Attorney may not be able to assist Client further with preparation of a Chapter 13 case, as Federal Bankruptcy Rules require a written agreement between Client and Attorney, and the agreement that is used by Attorney is the Court-Approved Model Retention Agreement, which cannot be modified by either party, pursuant court rules.

Costs. Client agrees to pay all costs, including the filing fee for the bankruptcy, obtaining a current credit report, payment of credit counseling fees (if applicable), court fees for filing all amended schedules, obtaining tax transcripts (if applicable) and any other out-of pocket costs. Client shall pay an initial retainer of $ 372.00 to attorney for said costs. In the event that there are additional out-of-pocket costs, Client agrees to provide Attorney with advance payment for said costs, prior to any advance of payment of the cost on behalf of Client by Attorney.

Advance Payment Retainer Agreement. This retainer agreement is an advance payment retainer agreement. The attorney fees and costs that Client has agreed to pay Attorney shall transfer to Kumor & Hipple, P.C. immediately upon payment.

As our client, it is your option to have your money placed into a security retainer. The purpose of an advance payment retainer is to allow Client to retain Attorney to represent him against creditors. Client understands that it is advantageous to treat this retainer as an advance payment retainer in that it protects the funds paid to Attorney from the claims of his creditors. If this retainer were treated as a security retainer said funds would remain the property of Client and therefore subject to the claims of the Client's creditors. The choice of the type of retainer to be used is solely the decision of the Client. If Client desires that said retainer shall be a security retainer, then they shall notify attorney in writing at the time this agreement is signed.

Services Provided. It is understood that the above referenced flat fee is payment for services rendered and services to be performed. The services include: review of financial status; review of various documents related to debts and obligations; counseling as to various types of bankruptcy chapters; effect of bankruptcy on future ability to obtain new credit; effect of reaffirmation, redemption, avoiding liens and surrendering property; specific advice regarding how to avoid bankruptcy and alternatives to bankruptcy; complete drafting of all required bankruptcy documents; revision and redraft of final bankruptcy documents; attending creditors' meeting, and closing the file.

Services Not Provided. Client agrees that additional attorney's fees would be due in the event that any additional representation becomes necessary, including, but not limited to any 2004 examination, any adversary proceedings, objections to discharge, or any other action, hearing or representation that is not specified in the preceding paragraph of this agreement. Said additional representation shall be covered by a separate legal services agreement and will require an additional retainer.

Decision Not to Proceed or Use Attorney's Services. The Client agrees that should he decide not to file bankruptcy or decide not to continue using Attorney's services, Attorney may charge time against any retainer paid the amount of $350.00 per hour for all services rendered to date, plus actual costs incurred.

Client Responsibilities. Client agrees to cooperate in the preparation of the bankruptcy case, to appear for the creditors' meeting, depositions and court appearances and to comply with all reasonable requests made in preparation of this bankruptcy case. Failure to cooperate may result in Court-imposed sanctions and Attorney's withdrawal from the case.

Client understands that it is the Client's responsibility to provide Attorney with a complete and accurate list of creditors and other information requested by Attorney. The Client further understands that any debts not listed in his bankruptcy schedules may not be discharged. If Client fails to provide Attorney with all information necessary to prepare the necessary documents and said failure necessitates any amendments to the schedules or Statement of Financial Affairs, Client agrees to pay an additional $100.00 for attorney fees, as well as any costs for said amendment.

Client understands that they MUST provide Attorney with a copy of Client's Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course. If Client fails to ensure that Attorney has received and filed the required Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course, the Client shall be responsible for payment of the court reopening fee and additional Attorney's fees of $600.00 for filing a motion to reopen the case and file said certificate. Attorney is under no obligation to file any motion to reopen Client's case until the above referenced fees and costs are paid.

Copies of Documents / File Retention. Client understands that he shall receive copies of all documents related to his file. Client should retain those documents as his copy of his file. In the event that Client requires additional copies of the Attorney's file the Client understands that he will be charged for those copies.

Client understands that his or her file shall be kept no more than five years. Should Client require copies of any documents or the return of original documents provided to Attorney he must request those copies in writing before the expiration of that five-year period.

Default. It is agreed that upon the event of any default or breach of any kind under this agreement by Client, Attorney reserves the right to withdraw as counsel of record for Client. It is further agreed that Client shall not have any recourse or claim against Attorney for damages following the withdrawal of Attorney as Client's counsel.

Other Assistance. In some cases it may be necessary to hire an attorney outside Attorney's firm to assist with the case. This attorney will be paid out of the retainer paid to Attorney. Client expressly consents to the hiring of an outside attorney to cover court dates as needed.

Other. The fees charged are in connection with this bankruptcy and for bankruptcy issues only. They do not include resolution of any other matters involving credit information.

This constitutes the entire agreement between the Attorney and Client regarding attorneys' fees and/or services provided in the engagement, the parties agree to resolve any disputes through mediation, followed by arbitration before any suit is filed.

Attorney is a debt relief agency that helps people file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

By Client's signature below, Client acknowledges understanding the terms of this agreement and agrees to abide by its provisions. Client has received a copy of this agreement for his records no later than five business days after the first date on which the Attorney provided any bankruptcy assistance services to client.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
